THE BALCONY

Surrounded by old English elm trees, the magnificent Yarra River, and bathed with natural light filtering through a glass veranda, a wedding at The Balcony creates for a truly special moment you will long remember. Set in the beautifully restored Victorian residence at Studley Park Boathouse, the classic space which trades as a restaurant by day can be customised to express your own style and story. This historic location can host anywhere from a small intimate event, cocktail party as well as formal functions, seating up to 76 guests and offering a flexible range of menu packages. With fantastic food, great staff and charming surroundings, The Balcony is available to cater to your event exclusively, making your day the perfect celebration.

THE TERRACE

A wedding at The Terrace embraces an ambience like no other. Uniquely versatile, The Terrace offers both an indoor seating area and alfresco, creating an environment that combines the classic charm of Studley Park Boathouse with functionality. Operating as a café during the day, The Terrace transforms into a stylish venue that is warm and unique, allowing your guests to move freely around the space and its outdoor surroundings. Seating 80 guests or catering for 130 for a cocktail event, we offer a range of delicious menu packages, so you can accommodate your event to your liking. Set along the majestic Yarra River and available exclusively for your special day, The Terrace creates a memorable experience that will take your breath away.

THE RIVERBANK

Set on the banks of the magnificent Yarra River, The Riverbank is ideal for the perfect outdoor wedding. Surrounded by natural bushland, old English elm trees and with the historic Victorian boathouse in its backdrop, The Riverbank embraces its breathtaking views in a setting that is lush with greenery, and can adapt to your unique style and flair with ease. Accommodating over 120 guests, this beautiful open-plan space can be transformed into an unforgettable event that is sure to be treasured be it day or night. For peace of mind, whether its rain, hail or shine, we are well prepared for all four seasons in one day and have the ability of accommodating your party at ease to one of our indoor venues. With your selection of a range of delicious menu packages, our fabulous staff and beautiful natural surroundings, The Riverbank is exclusively yours on the day, so you can make your dream celebration a reality.
